In view of the recent change in the guidelines, you are now requested to sanction one-time grant for the girls have completed the age of 18 on 01.04.2013 but not after 01.10.2013. At least 20 of the beneficiaries from your district should be sanctioned for the one-time grant especially from those showing outstanding calibre in some sphere of life or education. Please ask your District Social Welfare Officers to collect the application forms this week. Also please ensure the forms reach selected schools immediately. You are requested to help applicants open new zero balance accounts with help of the institute they are studying in. An urgent meeting of the District Coordination Committee (DCC) for bankers may be called to chalk out the modalities in this respect. You may also give us the name of the nodal officer for Kanyashree without further delay and take all steps as indicated in the letter under reference.

It is reiterated that there should be at least one teacher / guardian for every 50 students to be brought to the venue and the safety and security of students ensured.

Yours faithfully,

(Roshni Sen)
Secretary
