Sir / Madam

Sub: Kanyashree Prakalpa Rapid Assessment 2016 (Phase II)

Kadence International has been commissioned to conduct a Rapid Assessment of Kanyashree Prakalpa across all districts in West Bengal, and has recently completed Phase I of the assessment covering 6 districts. The aim of the Rapid Assessment is to track ongoing changes in output and outcome indicators of Kanyashree and triangulate the findings with MIS and baseline information. The findings will also support the program review of the scheme at the State level. The target respondents for these rapid assessments are spread across different levels of the implementation system beneficiary groups from the community.

Phase II of the Rapid Assessment will be conducted in October and November 2016 in the following districts:

1. Alipurduar
2. Barddhaman
3. Hooghly
4. Maldah
5. North 24 Parganas
6. South 24 Parganas
7. Uttar Dinajpur

You are accordingly requested to extend all support to the assessment team from Kadence for information and facilitate their timely access to stakeholders at district, block and panchayat levels, as well as heads of educational institutions, nodal teachers and beneficiaries.

You are also requested to grant a personal interview to the team during their visit to your district.

Yours faithfully,

Roshni Sen
Secretary
